

Area golfers excel during summer play

BOWLING GREEN – Golfers from the region have kept busy even though the high school season is over. At the Bluegrass Golf Tour event June 1 at the Bowling Green Country Club, CJ Campbell of Mount Washington carted a nine-over 81 in the 19 and under boys division to finish in eighth place.

In the boys' 14 and under division, Leitchfield's Corey Gaither had a 27-over 99, which was good enough for ninth place.

In the girls' 19 and under, Kenzi England of Campbellsville won the event. She had a nine-over 81 to capture the win.

In the boys' 11-12 nine-hole event, Redick Johnson of Elizabethtown tied Bowling Green's Max Brown for the top spot. The two golfers each recorded a six-over 42.

On the following day, Crosswinds Country Club in Bowling Green hosted a BGT event.

In the boys' 19 and under division, Campbell tied for 13th with a 16-over 88.

In the girls' 19 and under, England again claimed the title with a three-over 75.

In the boys' 11-12 nine-hole event, Leitchfield's Mason Day won the division with a three-over 39.

Fisherville's Hayden Hoover was third with a six-over 42. Johnson was tied for fourth in this event with a seven-over 43.

COLLEGE SHOWCASE

Several area golfers participated in the BGT College Showcase on June 3-4 at the Big Blue Course at the University of Kentucky.

Simpsonville's Rowan Whitehouse was atop the leaderboard after the first day with an eight-over 80. On day two, he carted a better score of 79, which left him eighth overall with a 159.

Nick Green of Taylorsville found himself in 10th place after the first day's 81. However, a 76 on the final day saw him finish in a tie for fourth place with his 157, 14 over par.

Clayton Luckett and Eli Luckett, both of Simpsonville, tied for 16th place. They both carted 12-over 84 scores for the first day. The second day saw Eli Luckett shoot a 78, to finish in 10th place. Clayton Luckett finished with a 166 for a tie in 14th place.

Jacob Powell of Shepherdsville was tied for 24th with his 87, which was 15 over par. But he finished with an 84 on the second day and his 170 was good enough to tie for 19th.

In the boys 14 and under, Colt Owens of Simpsonville was second with his score of seven-over 79. And that is where he would finish as his 81 left him a final score of 160.

For the boys 12 and under on the nine-hole course, Redick Johnson of Elizabethtown was the winner. He led both days with a 36 and a 37 for a one-over par 73.

Hayden Hoover of Fisherville was seventh with a 10-over 46 on the first day. But he improved to sixth place with his final round of 42, for a total of 16-over par 88.

ELIZABETHTOWN COUNTRY CLUB

Golfers were in Hardin County on June 5.

And the hometown golfers did quite well.

In the boys' 19 and under, Charlie Proctor of Elizabethtown won with a one-over 73. Right behind in second place was Avery Miller of Elizabethtown just one stroke behind.

Also in the top seven was Elizabethtown's Jack Blankenship, who had a nine-over 81.

Shepherdsville's Brady Wilkison carted a 97, good enough for seventh place.

In the boys' 15 and under, the hometown golfer won. Mark Mercer of Elizabethtown won that division with a five-over 77. Also on the leaderboard was Jackson Miranda of Elizabethtown, who had a 103, which was good enough for fifth place.

In the boys' 14 and under, it was another Elizabethtown golfer who won. Chase Archer had a winning score of 86, which was 14 over par.

Tate Nieburh of Elizabethtown was third with a score of 89. Shepherdsville's Anderson Proctor was fourth with a 90.

Garrett Abell of Lebanon was fifth with a 91.

In the girls' 19 and under, Christin Michael of Elizabethtown tied for third place with a 12-over 84.

Allison Shofner of Campbellsville placed eighth with a 93.

In the girls' 15 and under, Avery Gaddie of Elizabethtown was the winner with her 89. She was followed by Elizabethtown's Emilia Jackson, whose 90 was good enough for a tie for second.

In the nine-hole division for boys' 11-12, Bardstown's Caleb Mouser claimed first place with an even 36.

Elizabethtown's Redick Johnson was second with his four-over 40.

In the girls' 12 and under nine-hole event, Elizabethtown golfers claimed the top three prizes. Anna-Vencill Donahue was first with a 48. She was followed by Avery Howard (52) and Annaleigh Howard (56).
