

Eagles end long drought to defeat Bullitt Central

MIKE FARNER SPORTS EDITOR

SHEPHERDSVILLE – Running out to a 4-0 lead just 10 minutes into the match, the North Bullitt snapped a long losing streak to 23rd District rival Bullitt Central on Thursday holding on for the 6-4 victory.

The Eagles had not beaten Bullitt Central since a 3-2 victory in the first of two matches during the 2018 season. The Cougars had won 16 of 17 from their county rivals since a split during the 2015 campaign, including the last 12 in a row.

But this was a somewhat strange game and not just because of the Eagles early offensive explosion. Six of the 10 total goals were scored off free kicks. Plus, in the final 90 seconds both teams had a player given a red card meaning that both teams finished the contest with only ten players.

North Bullitt head coach Nick Rodriguez was pleased with the turnaround after such a long drought. The Eagles had lost to Bullitt Central 6-1 last season at home.

"We have some boys who have been playing together for a few years," the coach pointed out. "And we have added some new players and they have synched in well.

"I have to give credit to Shilo (Rayburn, the BC head coach)," Rodriguez added. "He always has a good team. I knew they will score on us. It was a district game. It will always be intense."

Bullitt Central head coach Shilo Rayburn has been watching North Bullitt get better the past few seasons under head coach Nick Rodriguez and he knew that this would be a tough match. He was just not prepared to have to battle out of a 4-0 hole.

"We awakened from our slumber," the veteran coach said of the early issues. "They had some free kicks and we let them in."

Rayburn thought that three of the four goals that North Bullitt scored on the free kicks had hit his goalie's hands but still found the back of the net.

Bullitt Central had started the season with back-to-back wins, but then there were a pair of 2-1 losses followed by a 2-0 setback all in week two. The coach then felt that things really turned dark last week, with a 2-2 tie with Holy Cross before a really bad performance on Tuesday against Christian Educational Consortium, a team of home-schooled players with the Cougars losing 3-2. That led into the poor start against their biggest rivals.

"Before the game we had a film session," Rayburn said. "We were talking about some things. Then this game starts with some soft calls and they put them in. I don't want to take anything away from North, but we should have stopped some of those shots.

"Absolutely, they have gotten better," the coach added of the Eagles. "Since I have gotten here I have seen that. They have more speed. They have a couple of players that will go and get you."

That quick offensive surge by the Eagles was fueled by senior Martin
