36-yards to Brooklyn Boersete and 10-yards to Walter. The offense aos got 34-yards on the ground by Boersete and 8-yards by Gracie Bishop.

On the other side of the ball, both Payton Aldridge and Kali Campoamor had four flags while both Burden and Walter had three tackles. Boereste collected two flags.

For the Chiefs, Dana Robinson had a touchdown and an extra point on a day when she rushed for 67 yards. The offense also got a score and 75 yards on the ground by Jazzy Hardy. In the ‘pass yards’ column Robinson had a 26 and Hardy had a 44 while Molly Whitaker had 2-yards, but those numbers really do not add up.

In another game on Saturday, the Pleasant Grove Dolphins unleashed a strong passing attack and defeated the Brooks Buccaneers 37-7.

Kinleigh Cook passed for 133 yards while Adalyn Noe threw for 15 yards. Harper Smith caught passes for 106 yards and had four touchdowns. Molly Barber also caught a touchdown pass for 6-yards. Paisley Newcomb caught passes for 26-yards.

The leading tackler for the Dolphins was Noe with five while Cook had four flags. Both Emma Summers and Smith had two stops. Smith also had two interceptions.

No stat sheet was turned in for the Buccaneers.

GIRLS FLAG FOOTBALL – 2ND THROUGH 4TH GRADE

In one of the games in this age group, the Fairdale Bulldogs rolled past the Lebanon Junction Seahawks 42-0.

Four of the touchdowns for the Bulldogs were scored by Jayla Starks on a day when she rushed for 100 yards and caught passes for 35 yards from Millie Howard including two of the touchdowns. Fairdale also got two scores from Olivia Brooks who had 60 yards on the ground. Daisy Purtilar a touchdown and 45 yards on the ground. The Bulldogs also got 15 yards on the ground from Lillan Rimer along with 20 yards by Palmer Nethery and 6-yards by Bayleigh Fernandez-Hagan.

It was a big day on defense for Brooks with ten flags while Starks had six stops. Howard had three flags.

The Seahawks did not score in this game, but the team did get 31 yards on the ground from Brooke alone with 19 yards by Bailey and 18 yards by Gwen. Brinley rushed for three yards. Brooke passed for 16 yards to Sosophena.

In a night game on Saturday, the Pleasant Grove Dolphins turned back the Cedar Grove Vikings by a 22-0 score.

The scoring column for the Dolphins lists two touchdowns and four extra points, which in no form can add up to 22. Still, Letty Wohner rushed for 107 yards with a touchdown while Miya Belmar rushed for 94 yards with a touchdown. The stat line also has Nora Summers rushing for 30 yards with four extra points. The team also got 7-yards from both Cora Hibbs and Clare Tahirovic. Also, 3-yards were gained on the ground by Braelyn Cowsert and Elsie Sawyer.

On the other side of the ball, Belmar led the way with four flags while three were pulled by Summers. Two flags were taken by Hayden Hanley, Sawyer and Tahirovic.

The Vikings did not score in this game, but did get 23 yards through the air to Hannah Pocker with 18 of those yards thrown by Nadia Bartley and 5-yards by Rayleigh Parrish. On the ground, the Vikings had 12 yards by Winni Wheatley and 11 yards from Parrish. Ellie Pierce rushed for 4-yards while Bartley rushed for 3-yards and Tammy Key 2-yards.

Lakeann Richardson pulled seven flags in the loss while Key had five and Wheatley four. Pocker had two flags. Both Pierce and Richardson had an interception.

In a tighter game on Saturday, the Brooks

Buccaneers defeated the Overdale Chiefs 18-6.

All three of the touchdowns for Brooks were scored by Kensley Holden on a day when she rushed for 90 yards. Holden did pass for 5-yards to Harmony Embry. The offense also got 34 yards on the ground from both Sadeigh Dwyer and Makynlee Richards. Allison Johnston rushed for 10-yards.

Dwyer was the leading tackler for the Buccaneers with nine while Holden had six. The team also got three flags from Ava Hoskins and two each from Lillian Bryson and Embry.

Unfortunately, no stat sheet was available for the Chiefs.

CO-ED FLAG FOOTBALL

The Overdale Chiefs had a good day on Saturday as they turned back the Fairdale Bulldogs 32-6.

Three of the touchdowns for the Chiefs were scored by Khylan Harbison on a day when he rushed for 115 yards. Justin Whited rushed for 135 yards with a score and it looks like he passed for 104 yards to Korbyn Walden who also had a touchdown. Kareem White rushed for 60 yards and scored a pair of extra points.

Harbison also had a big day on defense with eight flags while Walden had six. Whited finished with three flags while White had two.

The player scoring the touchdown for the Bulldogs was not noted on the score sheet. Knoxlyn Hess rushed for 98 yards in the game for the Bulldogs while Ambrose Boyd had 80 yards. Eion Mbaka added 70 yards on the ground while Karter Kroeger rushed for 20 yards.

The only Fairdale player with more than one flag was Curtis Jeffries with two.

In another game with a lot of offense, the Cedar Grove Vikings turned back the Mount Washington Colts 36-20.

It was a big day on offense for the Vikings’ Tripp Smith as he rushed for 330 yards with four touchdowns. The other touchdown was scored by Carter who had 70 yards on the ground. The offense also got 10-yards on the ground from both Ollie and Cary.

Carter was the leading tackler for the Vikings with 11 flags while Smith had seven. Earnhart collected three flags.

Leading the way for the Colts was Brock Sharp who scored a pair of touchdowns while rushing for 145 yards. Karson Dockery rushed for 73 yards with a score while Onyx Sanders scored two extra points while rushing for 82 yards. The offense also got 17-yards by Jaxson Philpot as well as 10-yards each from Kyson Goodlett and Asher Pearson.

Sharp was also the leading tackler for th Colts with five while both Sanders and Dockery had had four flags. Waylon Dever finished with two flags.

In another tight game on Saturday, the Lebanon Junction Seahawks defeated the Maryville Patriots 22-15.

All three of the touchdowns for the Seahawks were scored by Khalil Mallory who rushed for 120 yards while Brock Boggs rushed for 105 yards with an extra point. Wyatt Garvin also had an extra point while rusing for 12-yards. The team also got 13-yards by Brantley Walker.

The top tackler for the Seahawks was Mallory with ten while Boggs had five and Walker four. Garvin finished with two tackles.

All of the points for the Patriots were scored by Grayson Berson on a day when he rushed for 2454yards. The offense also got 17 yards on the ground by Mar’Ryan Allen.

Berson also had five flags on defense while Allen had two. Berson also had a safety in the game.

In one of the highest scoring games of the season, the Brooks Buccaneers needed to score 41 points to defeat the Pleasant Grove Dolphins 41-33.

Unfortunately, no stat sheet was available for the Buccaneers despite the team winning the game.

Leading the way for the Dolphins was Jonah Escamilla who rushed for 183 yards while scoring a pair of touchdowns. The offense also got 95 yards by Beux Benz who had a touchdown and a pair of extra points. Benz also passed for 60 yards to Tamara Cross for a touchdown.

Cross was the leading tackler for the Dolphins with five while Escamilla pulled three flags. Lyndon Okes finished with two flags.
