Bullitt Central had 15 service 'aces' including four from Mackenzie Lyon and three from both Sophia Moriarty and Lyla Duke. The Lady Cougars had 15 assists by Alivia Reynolds and also had a dozen 'kills' by Bailey Richards while Alaya Allen had nine.

The team also got 12 'digs' by Aubrey Rutledge and 11 by Addison Booth, nine by Moriarty and eight by Reynolds.

On Wednesday, the Lady Eagles were back in action at home but lost a 2-0 decision to Bethlehem. No stats for that match had been posted over the weekend.

Those two matches left the Lady Cougars with a 8-8 record. Bullitt Central will play once over Fall Break, against Eastern on Thursday. The team also has two more regular season games scheduled for next week before entering

On Tuesday, there was a tough 3-2 loss to visiting Oldham County. No stats were posted for that game as of this weekend.

The same was true for a game on Thursday as North Bullitt hosted Martha Layne Collins High School with the green and gold falling 3-0.

North Bullitt will play matches this week during Fall Break. The Lady Eagles now have a record of 14-8.

"We need a good week of practice," said Cruise. "It's a big one next Friday."

NEXT GAME – The Eagles will be home on Friday to entertain the Fairdale Bulldogs, a team that has had North Bul-
