The Hebron Lady Panthers were the 6th grade runner up.

MOUNT WASHINGTON – Riding an incredible performance by Maecee Reese, the Mount Washington Lady Generals rallied from a 10-point deficit and beat the Hebron Lady Panthers 26-23 in overtime in the championship game of the Girls' Bullitt County Middle School Basketball Tournament on Thursday.

With less than two minutes remaining in the third quarter (6th-graders play five-minute quarters), Hebron moved ahead 16-6. Mount Washington did the only thing they could do as head coach Reagan Williams unleashed Reese.

The cat-quick little guard, who would end up starting in all three games on Thursday, scored 18 of her teams' final 20 points after halftime for her squad including converting a pair of free throws with :02 remaining in regulation to force the overtime. Off the opening tip in the extra period, Reese grabbed the ball and scored, giving Mount Washington the lead for the first time in the game.

Eastside tied the game with a basket from Kynslee Wagner, but seconds later Reese scored again. The Lady Eagles got a free throw by Stella Seymour but then Reese scored again to account for the final score.

Of the 26 points that Mount Washington had in the game, Reese scored 24. The only other two points came from Mackenzie Bush when she scored to pull the Lady Generals within 20-18 with 48 seconds remaining in regulation.

Hebron missed two free throws with ten seconds remaining. Mount Washington got the ball in the hands of Reese who drove the length of the floor and was fouled. She calmly stepped to the line and connected on the two free throws to force the overtime.

Hebron had a little more balance, getting 10 points from Wagner along with nine points by Seymour.

This year's Girls' Bullitt County Middle School Basketball Tourney was sponsored by Maraman-Billings Funeral Home with Tim Gonterman present to present the tropies after each of the three games. The event is also sponsored by The Awards Center, Sweat and Griffee Law Office and The Pioneer News.

run for 46 yards while Reece Roby had nine carries for 30 yards.

When Egan went back to pass, he had five completions to Butler for 80 yards. Pope had three catches for 68 yards and two scores by Walsh caught four passes for 75 yards and two touchdowns. Waters had two receptions for 29 yards with a score.

The 15 catches for Bullitt East in this game worked out to an 18-yard per catch average.

Bullitt East also had Easton Hughes convert all seven of his extra point attempts.

On defense, Clan led the Chargers with 12 total tackles while both Crew Parrish and Landon Ritter made nine total tackles. Jack Seay finished with eight tackles while Aiden Pentecost had six.

Bullitt East had the interception by Clan and the team forced a pair of fumbles, recovering one by Cooper Durst.

Bullitt East will be at home again on Friday for the Class 6-A play-offs as they will host Ryle. This will be the first meeting between the two teams since they clashed in the play-offs in the second round of the 2023 season, a game that the Raiders controlled from the outset, ending Bullitt East's hope of repeating as state champion.

Ryle will enter this game with a 6-5 record. The team opened the post-season with a 39-0 victory over Fern Creek.

Like Bullitt East, Ryle has played a very competitive schedule this season. The Raiders have lost games this fall to teams like Christian Academy of Louisville and Covington Catholic., losing both by large margins. In fact, in all five of the team's losses, the team has scored seven or fewer points.

The only two teams that they have in common are the two play-off teams. Ryle beat both Fern Creek and Great Crossing, teams that Bullitt East also beat.

Game time in Mount Washington on Friday is set for 7:30 p.m.
