

Historic Events From Across The World In January 1926

The month of January has been home to many historical events over the years. Here's a look at some that helped to shape the world in January 1926.

The first radio station in Ireland, 2RN, begins broadcasting on January 1.

The worst flooding in the German city of Köln occurs on January 1. A torrent of water rises 35 feet, forcing roughly 50,000 people to evacuate their homes.

General Theodoros Pangalos declares a state of emergency in Greece and assumes dictatorial powers on January 3. General Pangalos had become Prime Minister of Greece in June 1925 after orchestrating a coup d'état.

Great War cemeteries in France are submerged on January 7 due to ongoing downpours affecting various areas throughout Europe. The same rains flood the London subway system as well.

Gracie Allen and George Burns are married by a justice of the peace in Cleveland on January 7. The newlyweds ultimately gain renown as the comedy duo Burns and Allen.

Twelve-year-old Prince Nguyen Phúc Thuy is crowned Emperor of Vietnam on January 8. The prince's father, Emperor Khai Dinh, died two months earlier on November 6.

Herman, Henry and Hillel Hassenfeld incorporate the Hassenfeld Brothers company on January 8. The company initially manufactures school supplies but eventually begins to make toys under the name "Hasbro."

Twenty Mexican rebels open fire aboard a train traveling from Guadalajara to Mexico City on January 9. The bandits escape with the equivalent of $150,000 USD.

The four-masted schooner Prinz Valdemar capsizes on January 10, blocking all ship traffic in and out of Biscayne Bay and the harbor of Miami, Florida. All aboard are rescued unharmed, but two ocean liners are prevented from leaving the harbor.

United States Representative John W. Langley of Kentucky resigns from Congress on January 11. Langley's resignation comes after the U.S. Supreme Court affirmed his jail sentence for violating prohibition laws by illegally selling alcohol to New York-based bootleggers with ties to organized crime.

Michael Bond is born in Newbury, Berkshire, England, on January 13. Bond would survive a 1943 air raid in Reading during World War Two before authoring his first book, A Bear Called Paddington, in 1958.

Twenty-year-old Ayn Rand departs Russia by train on January 17. Rand's early life in Communist Russia heavily influenced the philosophy reflected in many of her more notable works.

Voting rights activist Indiana Little leads several hundred Black men and women on a march to the Jefferson County registrar's office in Birmingham, Alabama, on January 18. Little is arrested for disturbing the peace and would not be registered to vote for another 30 years.

Multiple ships near New York City are threatened by a gale on January 20. The U.S. luxury liner SS President Roosevelt completes a rescue of the British freighter SS Antinoe on January 28 after initial reports indicating the latter ship sank in the storm.

Chaplin Court Treatt and Stella Court Treatt complete the first successful journey across Africa by motorcar on January 24. The duo began their journey one year, four months and 11 days before completing the trip in Cairo, Egypt.

Speaking on behalf of the British Empire Cancer Campaign during a luncheon on January 25, British surgeon Sir Berkeley Moynihan says that cancer of the tongue is traceable to two things, including smoking.

Thousands of mourners line the streets of Brussels to watch the funeral procession of Belgian national hero and cleric Cardinal Désiré-Joseph Mercier on January 28. Cardinal Mercier was known for his staunch opposition to the German occupation of Belgium during World War I.

Violette Neatley Anderson becomes the first African American woman to be admitted to practice law before the U.S. Supreme Court on January 29.

The Chamber of Deputies passes "Law Number 100" on January 31. The law grants Italian Prime Minister Benito Mussolini the right to issue judicial norms without prior consultation with the Italian parliament.

Be Content With What God Provides

Q: I became a lawyer so I could make lots of money, live an exorbitant lifestyle, not purchase expensive things and go on extravagant vacations. I proudly say, "I've achieved all these things. I've achieved my dreams." The problem is I am as satisfied as I thought I'd be. Why am I so discontented?

A: The thrill of the chase is often gone when we've gotten what we strove for. Having lots of expensive stuff and going on extravagant vacations can leave a person very empty and dissatisfied.

Contentment in life doesn't come to us automatically. The Scripture tells us the Apostle Paul learned how to be content in "any and all" circumstances.

He exclaimed, "I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want" (Phil. 4:12). He only found real and lasting satisfaction in his relationship to Christ.

Paul replaced his affection for food, clothing, and different circumstances with a closeness to His Lord. As Christ becomes progressively more real and personal to us, we, too, will learn to be content with what we have.

Christ gave Paul the inner power to live contentedly like it was to Paul, the Apostle (Phil. 3: 10).

Don't Get Caught In The Cold; Create Emergency Travel Kit

By Vicki Shadrack
Extension Agent
for Agriculture and Natural Resources

Kentucky weather is unpredictable, however, preparing for cold weather is important in keeping you and your families safer during the winter months. Winter storms can create dangerous roads and a higher risk of frostbite, hypothermia and carbon monoxide poisoning.

Having an emergency kit with essential items in your home is the first step to surviving such an event, but you should also think about your car. Creating a vehicle emergency kit can help you and your family be prepared if caught out during a winter storm. Include these items in your vehicle and have them in a bag, bucket or small tote for easy access:

* Warm clothes (heavy coat, extra socks, gloves, hand warmers, etc.)

* Blankets

* Ice/snow scraper

* Bottled water

* Shelf-stable snacks (choose high protein foods to provide energy)

* Flashlight

* Cell phone charger and battery backup

* Jumper cables or battery-powered jump starter

* Sand or kitty litter (to help with traction if you are stuck in snow)

* Small or collapsable shovel

* Roadside flares or glow sticks

* Flat tire inflation canister (non-explosive)

During the winter months, always keep your gas tank full.

* Don't let it get low as you never know when you might be sitting for a while and unable to refuel. If you're stranded, only run the engine for 10 minutes each hour to charge your phone and run the heater.

* Be sure to open a window slightly allowing fresh air to enter the car and avoid carbon monoxide poisoning while it's running.

Keep your vehicle(s) and home safer this winter season with these helpful tips.
