

DOZENS OF LOCAL RESIDENTS took advantage of the free tree give-a-way sponsored by the conservation district. In addition to the tree give-a-way, about 20 children enjoyed a hike around the park with a forestry department representative to learn more about identifying various types of trees and enjoy making craft projects.

A VARIETY OF trees were available to the public at no cost during Saturday's annual tree give-a-way. Dogwoods, pines, oaks, Paw paws and several other varieties we among this years selections.

Listing Period

January 1, 2026 through March 1, 2026 is the Listing Period for Real Property and January 1, 2026 through May 15, 2026 for Tangible Property.

Real Property Additions/Deletions

Any taxpayer who has made physical changes to or added new property would need to report this to the local Property Valuation Office. Likewise, any property which has suffered damage or has been removed would need to be reported. These are changes which would have occurred between January 1, 2025 and January 1, 2026.

Address Corrections

Anyone who has not submitted a change of address form with their 2025 Tax Bills or has a PO Box not listed on their 2025 Tax Bills would need to report this Address Correction.

Homestead Exemption

Any person who turned 65 years of age in 2025 or will be 65 years of age in 2026 that has title to, lives in, and maintains their personal residence would need to stop by the Property Valuation Office or call to sign up for their Homestead Exemption. If you have already signed up there is no need to call or fill out another application.

Tangible Property

All individuals, partnerships, corporations, and other business entities owning, leasing, or having a beneficial interest in taxable tangible property which is located in Kentucky on January 1 must file a Tangible Property Tax Return. This would include items such as Manufacturing Machinery, Office Equipment, Inventory, etc. Forms may be obtained from our website in *.pdf or *.xls format:

Inspection Period For The Property Assessment Roll

The Webster County Property Assessment roll will be open from Monday, May 4, 2026 through Saturday, May 11, 2026 and from Monday, May 11, 2026 through Saturday, May 16, 2026 and also on Monday, May 8, 2026 for the 2026 Tax Year. Under the Supervision of the P.V.A. or one of the Deputies, any person may inspect the assessment roll.

This is the January 1, 2026 assessment on which the state, county, school, and other districts taxes for 2026 will be due this fall.

Any property owner desiring to appeal an assessment on real property made by the P.V.A. must first request a conference with the P.V.A. We can conference by Telephone, Email, or in Person. To avoid waiting you may want to call ahead and reserve a time. Those individuals who are unable to come in can appeal by writing a letter identifying the property and stating the reason for appeal and the Taxpayer's opinion of value.

Any property owner still aggrieved by an assessment of real property, after a conference with the P.V.A. can file an appeal on Wednesday, May 20, 2026 with the Webster County Clerk's Office by writing a letter identifying the property and stating the reason for appeal and the Taxpayer's opinion of value to be reviewed by Webster County Board of Assessment Appeals.

Any property owner failing to appeal to the County Board of Appeals, or failing to appear before the board, either in person or by a designated representative will not be eligible to appeal directly to the Kentucky Board of Assessment Appeals.

Appeals for personal property assessments shall not be made to the county board of assessment appeals. Personal property owners shall be served notice under the provisions of KRS 132.450(4) and shall have the protest and appeal rights granted under the provision of KRS 131.100.

The following steps should be taken when a property owner does not agree with the assessed value of personal property;

- 1) Property owner must list under protest (for certification) what they believe to be the fair cash value of the property.
- 2) Property owner must file a written protest directly with the Department of Property Valuation within 30 days from the date of the notice of assessment.
- 3) This protest must be in accordance with KRS 131.110.
- 4) The final decision of the Kentucky Department of Revenue may be appealed to the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals.

(The Webster County PVA Office is responsible for the assessment of property, however, we do not set tax rates or collect taxes.)
