phone down and pay attention. No appointment or errand is worth putting a child in danger.

I have been honored to recognize our public, private and homeschool families over the years. Each takes a different approach, but all share the responsibility of helping young people learn and become capable adults. The start of this school year will be my final first day as your state senator, but the lessons I have learned from the people of this district will remain with me long after I leave office. Thank you to every educator, student, parent and school employee who has allowed me to share in your journey. You are an inspiration to me and give me great hope for the future of our state and nation.

Make this year count. You never know where it may lead. Sen. Jimmy Higdon, R-Lebanon, represents the 14th Senate District, including LaRue, Marion, Nelson, Spencer, and Washington Counties. He serves as co-chair of the Interim Joint Committee on Transportation and the Public Pension Oversight Board. He also serves on the Interim Joint Committees on Education; Licensing, Occupations, and Administrative Regulations; Veterans, Military Affairs, and Public Protection; and the Budget Review Subcommittee on Transportation.
