

Canaan boy dies, parents injured when tree falls on home

BY PAXTON MEDIA GROUP

MADISON, Ind. — A 9-year-old Jefferson County boy died and his parents were injured when a tree fell during last Wednesday's thunderstorms and crushed the family's mobile home in Canaan, Indiana.

According to the Jefferson County Coroner's Office, Brayden Miller, the son of Ben and Abby Miller, 8837 North Canaan Main Street, died from blunt force trauma after wind and rain toppled the tree and it crashed down on the family's home at about 4:30 p.m.

There were actually five members of the Miller family at home at the time of the storm. Ben and Abby Miller were treated and released at the Norton King's Daughters' Health Emergency Room. Brayden's two siblings — and boy and a girl — were not injured.

The family lost all of their belonging in the tragedy and is currently staying in a motel. A GoFundMe page has been established to assist the family.

Private funeral services were conducted at Morgan & Nay Funeral Centre in Madison, with interment in the Canaan Cemetery, www.morgan-nay.com.

benefits. You can pretty much catch them at least once every week, sometimes more often, and the shows are just familiar and fun and delightful. Joe's singing is spot on, and Deano's guitar work is stellar. This week they are at the Riverboat Inn, which is an intimate and relaxed place to see live music. Their other show is Sunday at Rivertown Grill, but be advised Rivertown may be closed at the moment, per a recent post from the owner. More on that when we learn more.

Charlie Rohlfing is a retired advertising man and partner in The Red Bicycle Hall music venue. Look for his distinctive fedora bobbing above the crowd anywhere local live music is happening.
