Generals Continue Strong Cross Country Season with PR-Filled Day

Malachi Shannon ran his season best and earned a 6th place finish

The Jackson County Generals continued to show progress on the cross country course Saturday, turning in a strong collection of personal records and season-best performances as the season moves toward its championship stretch.

Leading the way for the Jackson County boys was Malachi Shannon, who crossed the line in 17:22.81, a season-best performance that earned him sixth place overall. Jadyn Agee followed with an 18:18.64 finish, good for 12th place.

Behind the Generals’ front two, several runners delivered breakthrough performances. Noah Saylor recorded a new personal record of 21:28.71, while Jaxon Turner ran a season-best 23:39.77. 7th grader, Jace Isaacs added another PR for Jackson County, finishing in 23:50.84.

The girls also had plenty to celebrate. Brooklyn Hammonds led the way with a season-best 24:43.72. Aleigha Ison continued her improvement with a new PR of 26:30.49.

The personal records continued throughout the Jackson County lineup. Heidi Brumback finished in 29:47.74, McKenzie Jackson ran 30:18.21, Amaya Petty lowered her personal best to 31:22.37, and Gabby Isaacs finished in 32:32.03. All four performances were new PRs.

In all, Jackson County came away with seven personal records and three season-best performances, another encouraging sign of the team’s continued development.

Brooklyn Hammonds ran her season best marking significant progress

US Postal Service Issues Holiday Mailing Guidance

We are rapidly approaching the holiday season. There has been growing concerns about the U.S. Postal Service regarding the time it takes to deliver postal items. If you plan on mailing a package to someone as a gift for Christmas, it would be nice if it arrived before Christmas Day.

For expected delivery by December 25, 2026, the USPS Holiday Shipping Deadlines recommend sending mail and packages within the contiguous U.S. by December 17 for Ground Advantage and First-Class Mail.

Contiguous U.S. (Lower 48 States) Deadlines

- USPS Ground Advantage: December 17
- First-Class Mail: December 17
- Priority Mail: December 18
- Priority Mail Express: December 19
