GIVE P'S A CHANCE

A Russell County Search & Rescue boat scanned the scene near a boating accident on Lake Cumberland.

After the collision, a woman in one boat was injured, and a man in the other boat was reported missing, authorities said.

Search & Rescue, Russell County EMS, and the Russell County Sheriff's Office rushed to the Lilly Creek Boat Ramp where the injured woman was retrieved, then taken to a waiting emergency medical helicopter.

At the Pleasant Hill Boat Ramp, local Search & Rescue was joined by Campbellsville Fire & Rescue who launched boats and began searching for the missing man.

At least three officers from the Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources were on the scene to investigate the incident.

Efforts to find the missing boater were suspended near dark on Saturday, and resumed for nearly 12 hours on Sunday.

At presstime, additional equipment was being brought to the search area.

With the investigation still ongoing, the names of those involved have not yet been released.

Additional information will be posted on The Times Journal Facebook page as the story develops.
