John K. Murray

John K. Murray passed away Tuesday, January 27, at Jackson Purchase Medical Center in Mayfield, Kentucky. He was born September 10, 1932, in Gladys Hollow, Tenn. to Luther and Vera Murray. He was married to Francis Murray.

John was retired from the United States Army, where he served with honor as an Army Special Forces sniper. He served in both Korea and Vietnam, and was among the first groups sent to Vietnam as an advisor before the war, completing multiple tours of service. Uncle John was a hero—whether he would admit it or not.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Luther and Vera Murray; his wife, Francis; his son, Johnny; his daughter, Heather; his brothers, James Murray, Robert Murray, and Bill Murray; his sisters, Inez Hicks, Betty Clark, Judy Murray, Mary Hobbs, and Pat McCullough; and a baby sister, Vera.

He is survived by one granddaughter, Ember Medlow; one sister, Gladys Crittenden of Hickman; many nieces and nephews; a wonderful church family at David's Chapel; and many dear friends.

Affectionately known throughout Hickman as "Uncle John," he was loved by everyone. Though a true hero, he was a kind-hearted man with a servant's soul, known for building furniture for half of Hickman and helping anyone who needed it.

He loved people and had a heart of gold. He loved his family and his church, and you could always learn something new when sharing a conversation with him. He will be deeply and forever missed by all who knew and loved him.
