Stolen vehicle pursuit through Graves, Carlisle, and Ballard Counties

The following is from Sheriff Jon Hayden:

On March 02, 2026, at approximately 5:30 p.m., Graves Sheriff's Deputies attempted to stop a silver 2014 Chevrolet pickup that was hauling another vehicle on a trailer. The stop was attempted near the Ky 80 and bypass intersection just south of Mayfield. The reason for the stop was that the trailer was suspected as being stolen from the state of Indiana.

The driver of the pickup sped away from deputies leading them back through Mayfield, and eventually out onto and outbound on Ky Hwy 121 North. With the loaded trailer, speeds rarely exceeded 70 MPH.

The pursuit led deputies through the Fancy Farm community and then westbound on Ky Hwy 80 and into Carlisle County. The suspect travelled down several county roads, through the Kirbyton area, St. Charles area, and back out and onto Ky Hwy 121, again heading northbound. The pursuit then continued onto Us Hwy 62 into the Bardwell community and then onto Ky Hwy 51 toward Wickliffe.

Deputies from both the Carlisle and Ballard County Sheriff's Offices, and KSP attempted spike strips at multiple locations, however the suspect would leave the roadways to avoid them.

Once entering the area of Wickliffe, the suspect abruptly turned into the Phoenix Paper Mill, entering into the plant portion of the property. Once running into a dead end blocked by fencing, the suspect rammed through the fencing and steel posts. The trailer caught some of the fencing and the driver was unable to get the vehicle free. Deputies approached the suspect on foot ordering the driver to stop at gunpoint. At this time, the driver complied, turned the truck off. He was removed from the vehicle and taken into custody. Deputies also found a front seat passenger as well as a rear seat passenger.

The Chevrolet pickup truck was found to have been stolen from Pollock, Louisiana. The trailer that was loaded with another vehicle was found to have been stolen from Anderson, Indiana.

During the pursuit and while still in Graves County, suspects in the vehicle were throwing contraband from the vehicle which was later recovered and found to be Methamphetamine.

The driver was identified as being 38 year old Jason WR. Fowler of Pollock, Louisiana. He was charged with 1st Degree Fleeing or Evading Police, several counts of Wanton Endangerment, receiving stolen property (truck) valued at Over $10,000, Receiving Stolen Property (trailer) valued at Under $10,000, Possession of Methamphetamine, DUI - Meth, Tampering with Physical Evidence, and other charges.

A front seat passenger in the vehicle was identified as being 49 year old Terri L. Green of Ball, Louisiana. She was charged with Receiving Stolen Property Under $10,000, Possession of Methamphetamine, and other charges.

A rear seat passenger was identified as being 25 year old Daryn B. Covington of Ball, Louisiana. He was charged with Receiving Stolen Property Under $10,000, Possession of Methamphetamine, Tampering with Physical Evidence, and other charges. Stolen License plates were also recovered.

Additional charges are also being filed by both the Carlisle County Sheriff's Office and Ballard County Sheriff's Office related to the pursuit and violations in those counties. Charges of felony Criminal Mischief were also being filed by the Ballard County Sheriff's Office related to damages the suspect(s) caused to the Phoenix Paper Mill property.

There were no injuries to anyone at the paper mill, officers, or suspects.

The Graves County Sheriff's Office was assisted by the Mayfield Police, Kentucky State Police, Bardwell Police Department, the Ballard, and Carlisle County Sheriff's Offices.

All suspects were transported back to Graves County, processed, and then taken to out of county detention centers. The stolen property recovered was seized and secured in Graves County, and to be later returned to victims in both Indiana and Louisiana.

Descriptions matching this vehicle and suspects were reported to Graves Sheriff's Office by the Calloway County Sheriff's Office of an attempted trailer theft in Calloway County recently.
